Name ..... Class ..... Number.....

Present Progressive vs. Simple Present

Fill in the blanks. Use the present progressive or simple present form of the verb in parentheses.

1. The mechanic _____ (fix) my car now. Every day, he _____ (fix) cars with many different kinds of problems.
2. Sometime my doctor _____ (write) prescriptions. At this moment, she _____ (write) a prescription for me.
3. Veterinarians often _____ (work) with different kinds of animals, but Dr. Garcia always _____ (work) with horses.
4. Lindsay is Enlish professor. At the moment, she _____ (teach) a class in writing lab. This semester, she _____ (teach) three courses.
5. My cousin is a receptionist in a doctor's office. She _____ (talk) to every one who come in to the office. She _____ (talk) to patients all day every day.
6. Edward is going to school to become a hair stylist. He _____ (learn) to cut people's hair. This week, he and his classmates _____ (learn) how to cut short hair on men.
7. Jack _____ (travel) this week. He _____ (travel) every week for his job. He is a sales rep for a toy company.

LIVEWORKSHEETS