Human Growth

Infants are small and have no teeth. They sleep a lot. They are unable to care for themselves. Young children begin to care for themselves. They can walk, run, and talk. Teenagers grow fast and can do some things for themselves. They grow into adults. Now they can care for themselves. They do not get taller but change as they grow older.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Directions: Write 1, 2, 3 and 4 to put the pictures in the correct order.

LIVEWORKSHEETS