Cool Robots

Mahru the South Korean robot can move its mouth and eyes to show if it is happy, angry, or sad. This robot was made to help at home; it can iron for you if you want it to. But Mahru can't prepare sushi and it can't swim.

Clementine is a special robot that can swim in the sea. But it can't play the drums because it doesn't have arms. It looks like an orange and it has big eyes.

Papero, a Japanese robot, can sing and dance. It likes to play with children, but it can't do magic tricks. There is one problem—it can speak Japanese, but it can't speak English.
