Ex 1:

Mum: Where's your new hat, Sally? I hope you (not leave)_____ it on the school bus.

Sally: Don't worry, mum. I (put)_____ it in my school bag because I (be)_____ too hot.

Mum: Are you sure? I can't see it there. You probably (drop)_____ it in the road somewhere.

Sally: Oh, here it is – hanging in the hall. I (forget)_____ to take it this morning.

Ex 2:

If you take a walk through Reykjavik – the capital of Iceland – this summer, you (see)_____ groups of young people working in parks, gardens and green areas around the city. Most of these kids are in high school but they (spend)_____ the summer keeping the city green as part of a program known as 'work school'.

The 'work school' consists of a surprisingly large number of Reykjavik's teenagers. Roughly 75% of Reykjavik's 14-year-olds and 60% of the city's 16-year-ols (take)_____ part.

They get paid for their work, and at the same time they (improve)_____ the environment of their city.

They also (learn)_____ how to work as a member of a team which is led by an adult. This experience (provide)_____ them with useful skills for when they leave education and enter the world of work.

Ex 3:

A young man fell in love with another passenger on a long-distance flight – and then got the airline to help him find her.

For many people the flight to Australia is long and boring, but not for Abbie and Callum Davies – because that's where they first (meet)_____ . "She was sitting next to me," said Callum. "I felt relaxed talking to her and we (get)_____ on really well. We (chat)_____ all the way to Sydney and it was surprising how quickly the time went. Everyone else on the plane was asleep, but not us. We (not feel)_____ tired at all."

But after the flight he (realise)_____ he had forgotten to get her phone number. "I was relly depressed", he said, so "I (contact)_____ the airline. To be honest, it was quite embarrassing. I (think)_____ they might be amused but I think they (feel)_____ sorry for me. I (give)_____ her seat number, and waited.

Ex 4:

I'm a big fan of films featuring the spy James bond. I've got most of them on DVD. We (buy)_____ Quantum of Solace recently, in which Daniel Craig plays the part of Bond. I don't know why the film's got that name – but it's a great movie, anyway.

Al the actors who (play)_____ James Bond have been great, but Daniel Craig, who's made lots of other films, plays the part better than any of them. Even though he doesn't talk very much, I think he's the most perfect actor for the role. He even (do)_____ a few of the more dangerous things in the film himself, instead of getting someone else to do them. I did wonder sometimes whether he'd be clever enough to defeat the bad people – but I (not tell)_____ you the ending! The actress who stars with Craig (give)_____ a fantastic performance too – I loved all the glamorous clothes she wore.

Ex 5:

The director probably had a hard job making this Bond film as full of action as earlier ones. But the excitement (start)_____ right at the beginning here, with a car chase along a mountain road, and plenty of other thrilling scenes, too – Bond leaping off tall buildings and so on. Unfortunately, I found the story difficult to follow in places, and it also (seem)_____ to be over very quickly – it (last)_____ under two hours. I also (feel)_____ there weren't as many jokes as in the old Bond films. And where was all the ridiculous Bond equipment – the underwater car or exploding watch that everyone laughed at? This is a more serious, darker Bond film, but I still (enjoy)_____ it.
