Name: _____
Class: _____
Date: _____

Narrative poems tell a story. Read the poem below and then try to create a poem of your own.

No Prince Needed by Jennifer L. Betts

Princess Eva waited so long.

She wondered if the fairy had been wrong.

Trapped in the castle was she.

How could this be?

The witch cackled he'll never come.

That prince is a bum.

Princess Eva just sighed sadly.

Maybe she didn't want this so badly.

Looking out the window.

She was tired of being in limbo.

When the witch went to sleep

The princess decided to creep

Right down the stairs.

"Who cares?"

She thought with a smile.

"I'm leaving this castle, princess style."

"Who needs a prince?" thought she.

I've just got to rely on me.

Who are the characters?

What are the features of a narrative poem can you find in the poem? Give an example(s).

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

Source: Oxford International English Student Activity Book 5

Please email your results to haneesazahidah@fairview.edu.my OR submit a screenshot of your poem on page 2 on Google Classroom.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____
Class: _____
Date: _____

Title: _____ by _____ _____ waited so long.

_____ wondered if the _____ had been wrong.

Trapped in the _____ was _____.

How could this be?

The _____ cackled he'll never _____

That _____ is a _____ _____ just sighed sadly.

Maybe _____ didn't want this so badly.

Looking out the _____ .

_____ was tired of being in limbo.

When the _____ went to sleep

The _____ decided to creep

Right down the stairs.

"Who cares?"

_____ thought with a smile.

"I'm leaving this _____ , _____ style."

"Who needs a _____?" thought _____.

I've just got to rely on me.

Source: Oxford International English Student Activity Book 5

Please email your results to haneesazahidah@fairview.edu.my OR submit a screenshot of your poem on page 2 on Google Classroom.

LIVEWORKSHEETS