

Verb Collocations

A

Complete the sentences with the correct form of make, do, have or take.

1 You can't _____ noise in the library. 	2 I like scuba diving and _____ underwater photos. 	3 _____ (you) the shopping with me tomorrow? 	4 You look tired. You should _____ a rest.
5 I _____ (already) part in a marathon three times. 	6 Mr. Rich sells second-hand cars and he _____ a lot of money. 	7 Judy and Kim _____ the afternoon tea now. 	8 I _____ (not) my homework yet.
9 We _____ a barbecue with our neighbours last weekend. 	10 I _____ lots of tests these days. 	11 Eve _____ lunch with her mum today. 	12 My grandparents always _____ a walk after dinner.

B

Complete the collocations in the box with make, do, have or take. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

- _____ advantage
- _____ an appointment
- _____ an attempt
- _____ a bath
- _____ one's best
- _____ care
- _____ a class
- _____ a complaint
- _____ an exam
- _____ a nap
- _____ notes
- _____ opportunity
- _____ pictures
- _____ sure
- _____ well

C. Complete the following sentences with correct tense of the collocations: make, do, have or take.

- Please _____ your homework this afternoon.
- Hey Mark! You _____ a mistake.
- _____ you _____ sugar in your coffee?
- _____ you _____ a good trip last summer?
- We _____ turns in throwing the dice.
- _____ you please _____ the shopping for me?
- My sister Lisa _____ much progress with her French.
- _____ Alice _____ this photo?
- _____ your brother _____ the washing-up yet?
- I hope you _____ a lot of fun in New York.