

INTERROGATIVE PRONOUNS

What, who, where, when and which are interrogative pronouns. Interrogative pronouns are used at the beginning of questions to find out about something.

- What is used to ask about an object or animal.

What is that?

A caterpillar.

What are these?

Nails.

- Who is used to ask about people.

Who is she?

Farrah.

Who are they?

Gan and Tong.

- Where is used to find out about the place.

Where is the hoop?

On the floor.

Where are the girls?

In the hall.

- When is used to find out about time.

When is he coming here?

At 3 o'clock.

When are we having lunch?

At 1 o'clock.

- Which is used to ask about the choice between two or more people or things.

Which flavour do you like?

Vanilla.

Choose the correct answer.

- 1 (What, Which) apple is sweet?
- 2 (Where, What) are these plants?
- 3 (What, Who) is the Science teacher?
- 4 (Where, Who) are my storybooks?
- 5 (Who, Which) shoes are yours?
- 6 (When, Where) are they going to Penang?
- 7 (What, Which) is that tall building?
- 8 (Which, Who) is the lady with the hat?

Fill in the blanks with who, what, when, where or which.

- 1 _____ is the football match? Tomorrow.
- 2 _____ are my slippers? Under the table.
- 3 _____ is your shirt? The blue one.
- 4 _____ are those children? The pupils of Year Three.
- 5 _____ is this round object? A compact disc.
- 6 _____ are we going out? This evening.
- 7 _____ pencil do you want? The mechanical pencil.
- 8 _____ are those boys? My brothers.

Fill in the blanks with the correct interrogative pronoun.

- 1 Malar : _____ are you going?
Fiona : To Ipoh.
- Malar : _____ are you going?
Fiona : After lunch.
- Malar : _____ is going with you?
Fiona : My uncle.
- 2 Yunus : _____ are my socks, Mother?
Mother : In the drawer.
- Yunus : _____ drawer, Mother?
Mother : The last one.

Look at the picture. Answer the questions. Give short answers.

- 1 Who are the two boys?

- 2 Where are the boys?

- 3 What are the insects in the picture?

- 4 What are the boys holding?

- 5 Which boy is Abu?

