

Reading Comprehension

Making Predictions

Directions: Look at each picture. Read each sentence along with your teacher. Click the letter next to the sentence that tells what will happen next?

1. a. The boy will read a book. b. The boy will eat pie. c. The boy will eat ice cream.
2. a. She will keep the seashell. b. She will keep the leaf. c. She will climb the tree.
3. a. They will go to sleep. b. They will go swimming. c. They will go to school.
4. a. He will play in the water. b. He will sled ride. c. He will play basketball.
5. a. They will eat a snack. b. They will play a game. c. They will jog.

6. Click on the picture that shows a good guess about what you will see inside the book.

The Best Picnic Ever

a

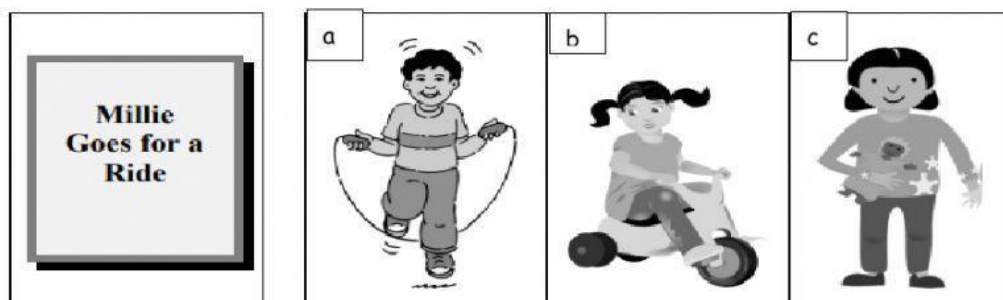

b

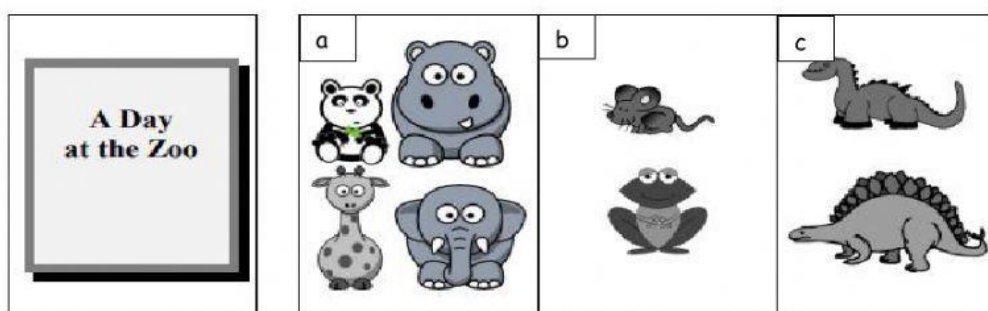

c

7. Click on the picture that shows a good guess about what you will see inside the book.

8. Click on the picture that shows a good guess about what you will see inside the book.

Read the story along with your teacher, then guess what will happen next.

Dan came first in his race at school. So, he had a party. At the party, he had a big dish of cake and ice cream. Then he drank two large cups of juice. He also ate a big bag of candies.

9. Click on the picture to guess what happened next?

10. "Dan came first in his race." What is the meaning of the word first?

- a. Coming after or behind all others.
- b. In the middle.
- c. Coming before all others.

11. List two (2) words from the story, that has the same meaning.
