

1. Read the next email and fill in the gaps with the correct word.

Earthquake – Natural disaster- Hurricane – Sleeping- Should- Must- Must not- Electricity -Breaking- Tsunami- Should not- Can -Should- Shaking- Disaster- Must-Should

Dear Maria,

When I was 11 years old, I experienced my first _____, it was an _____. I remember that my family and I were _____ when this began. All the houses were _____ from one side to another, the impact of this _____ was huge. I could hear the windows _____ down and the products from a near baker shop as glass bottles falling from the shelves. All my neighbors were afraid of this, they could not believe what was happening, then the _____ went off and we lighted up candles all night long.

So, here are some tips from me if you ever face a natural disaster. First, you _____ never run, you _____ stay calm. If you face an earthquake, is probably that after this stops, another natural disaster as a _____ occurs, if you are at the beach when this happens you _____ get into the water, that would be fatal! Instead, you _____ go the hills, try not to run but you _____ walk fast, you should help other people and animals as well.

If you ever face a _____, you _____ stay inside your house. Usually, this type of disaster is noticed by the experts before it happens, so you will be informed, but you _____ buy extra food and water to not go out for a few days and stay safe.

Remember that you _____ panic, I know it is hard but you need to protect yourself and your family from the damages.

With love, Anna.

2. Match the image with the right definition.

A sudden and violent shaking of the ground cause by the seismic waves.

A violently column of air touching the ground it usually comes after a thunderstorm.

This is a tropical storm with high and fast winds it is very destructive.

This happens after an earthquake; waves are very high.

A period of lack of water.

A violent storm, it causes the lack of electricity and you can see lighting on the sky.

