

PROVERBS 2.

Task 1. Match the pictures with the proverbs.

1. Every cloud has a silver lining!

2. Money is the root of all evil.

3. When in Rome do as the Romans do.

4. Beggars can't be choosers.

5. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

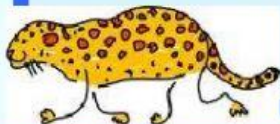

6. A barking dog seldom bites.

7. Don't put all your eggs in one basket.

8. Too many cooks spoil the broth.

9. A leopard cannot change its spots.

10. Curiosity killed the cat.

Task 2. Match the proverbs with their definitions.

- All wrongdoing is because of wanting (financial) wealth.
- Different people will find different things beautiful and the differences of opinion don't matter too much.
- If too many persons are managing an activity, they can easily ruin it.
- One can't change one's essential nature.
- People who are in great need must accept any help that is offered, even if it is not a complete solution to their problems.
- This proverb is used to warn against being too curious lest one should suffer (=so that one does not suffer) harm.
- Those who make loud threats seldom carry them out.
- When visiting a foreign land, follow the customs of those who live in it.
- You should never feel hopeless because difficult times are always followed by better days.
- You should not focus all your resources on one hope or possibility, because it is too risky.

