

C. Complete the dialogue with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

A: I don't know where to go on holiday this summer.

B: If I 1 _____ (be) you, I
2 _____ (visit) a foreign country.

A: I'd like that. I wish I 3 _____ (can) visit Australia, but it's very far and very expensive to get there.

B: That's a nice idea, out of the ordinary. If I 4 _____ (have) the money,
I 5 _____ (lend) it to you.

A: Really? Thanks. It's the thought that counts.
Anyway, where are you going?

B: I'm not sure yet. I wish I 6 _____
(speak) Russian. If I 7 _____ (do),
I 8 _____ (go) to Moscow.
I've always wanted to go there.

A: Why do you need to speak Russian? Just buy a phrasebook and you'll be fine.

B: You think so?

A: Of course. When are you taking your holiday?

B: In June.

A: I wish I 9 _____ (can) take time off
in June and come with you.
