

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

1. Conjugate verbs in parentheses in the present perfect continuous.

1. David (teach) English since 2006.
2. We (look) for that document all day.
3. Mr Diaz (speak) on the phone for two hours.
4. The students are exhausted because they (take) a difficult test.
5. He (live) here since he was a child.

2. Complete the following sentences with "have" or "has".

1. I been working all day.
2. She been studying all morning.
3. You been eating the whole time.
4. Andres been sleeping for four hours.
5. Sara and Nicolas been arguing for half an hour.

3. Formulate interrogative sentences in the present perfect continuous.

1. (How long/we/wait/for her) →
2. (How long/she/learn/English) →
3. (How long/they/go out with each other) →
4. (How long/you/exercise) →
5. (How long/he/sit/there) →

