

Match sentences with the same meaning.

COCA – COLA

1. Coca-Cola was invented by Pemberton in 1886.	A.	That's still a secret.
2. This drink consisted of seventeen different components.	B.	In almost every country where Coca-Cola is sold, the bottling plants are owned by local business people.
3. Even today the components are not made public.	C.	It was a thick liquid or syrup and people added water to it.
4. Only some people in the world know it.	D.	One of Pemberton's customers asked if he could add 'water with gas' instead of plain water.
5. The first Coca-Cola didn't have the same composition as today.	E.	It was invented by an American pharmacist named doctor J.S. Pemberton in 1886.
6. It was thick syrup to which still water was added.	F.	The company has changed hands several times.
7. Coca-Cola's name comes from its two original ingredients.	G.	He sold his company to somebody else after a couple of years.
8. Later plain water was changed for a carbonated one.	H.	Original Coca-Cola was different from the drink we know today.
9. After some years Pemberton sold his company.	I.	Coca and Cola were two of the ingredients used in the drink.
10. The owners of the Coca-Cola company have changed since then.	J.	Only a few people know it.
11. Manufacturing of the drink isn't concentrated only in the USA.	K.	He used about seventeen different ingredients to make the drink.