Once upon a time there were three bears, who _____ together in a house of their own in a wood. One of them was a little, small wee bear; one was _____ bear, and the other was a great, huge bear.

One day, after they had _____ porridge for their breakfast, they walked out into the wood while the porridge was _____. And while they were walking, a little girl came into the house. This little girl had golden curls that tumbled down her back to her waist, and everyone called her by Goldilocks.

Goldilocks _____ inside. First she tasted the _____ of the great, huge bear, and that was far too hot for her. And then she tasted the porridge of the middle bear, and that was _____ for her. And then she went to the porridge of the little, small wee bear, and tasted that. And that was neither too hot nor too cold, but just right; and she liked it so well, that she ate it all up.

Then Goldilocks went upstairs into the bed chamber and first she _____ upon the bed of the great, _____ bear, and then she lay down upon the bed of the middle bear and finally she lay down upon the bed of the little, small wee bear, and that was just right. So she covered herself up comfortably, and lay there until she fell fast asleep.

By this time, the three bears thought their porridge would be cool enough, so they _____ home to breakfast.

"SOMEBODY HAS BEEN AT MY PORRIDGE!" said the great huge bear, in his great huge voice.

"Somebody has been at my porridge!" said the middle bear, in his middle voice.

Then the little, small wee bear looked at his, and there was the spoon in the porridge pot, _____ the porridge was all gone.

"Somebody has been at my porridge, and has _____ it all up!" said the little, small wee bear, in his little, small wee voice.

Then the three bears went upstairs into their bedroom.

"SOMEBODY HAS BEEN LAYING IN MY BED!" said the great, huge bear, in his great, rough, gruff voice.

"Somebody has been laying in my bed!" said the middle bear, in his middle voice.

And when the little, small, wee bear came to look at his bed, upon the pillow there was _____ of golden curls, and the angelic face of a little girl snoring away, fast asleep.

"Somebody has been lying in my bed, and here she is!" Said the little, small wee bear, in his little, small wee voice.

Goldilocks _____ the bed and ran downstairs, out of the door and down the garden path. She ran and she ran until she reached the house of her grandma. When she told her grandma about the house of the three bears who lived in the wood, her granny said: "My my, what a wild _____ you have, child!"
