

Name _____

Section _____

Teacher _____

Date _____

TWO BECOME ONE

WORKSHEET 3

Direction: Read the following sentences in each number. Using the relative pronouns we had discussed, combine the two sentences and make it one complete thought.

1. Chocolate pudding is my favorite dessert. I ate it twice a day.
2. I bought a shirt last week. It is already stained.
3. The boy left the building. He is Justine.
4. My sister is a doctor. I received a car from her last summer.
5. The man is a former swimming coach. His daughter won the first place.