

Name: _____

Grammar Review

A. Choose the correct word in brackets to correctly complete each sentence.

The police (has, have) the difficult task of controlling crime.

All but Ingrid (play, plays) the guitar.

Most of the milk (was, were) used already.

He is one of the boys who (enjoy, enjoys) music.

Ten percent of the money (is, are) spent.

Politics (do, does) not interest me.

(Was, Were) either of them present at the fair.

Neither John nor Mary (travel, travels) by bus.

B. In the space provided write the PRESENT TENSE of the verb underlined.

EXAMPLE: He went to the shop. (goes)

The mad dog bit the boy. (_____)

They left early for the pageant. (_____)

Mummy spoke to my teacher. (_____)

She dealt well with the tourists. (_____)

Our team has never been beaten. (_____)

We wore the purple dresses. (_____)

I shook the President's hand. (_____)

C.

Choose the correct prefix from the box below to complete the following sentences.

Use a prefix only once.

non	pre	un	im	dis	ir	en
-----	-----	----	----	-----	----	----

EXAMPLE: He was unprepared for the exam.

The lions _____ circled their prey.

The monster described in the story is _____ existent.

There was much _____ amble before the minister gave his address.

That is an _____ relevant point you are making.

He displayed such _____ courteous behaviour that his mother was ashamed.

D. Write the correct form of the adjective in brackets to complete each sentence.

She is the _____ girl I have ever met. (beautiful)

Christmas is the _____ time of the year. (busy)

Out of all the girls she has the _____ voice. (good)

Fred is the _____ dancer in the room. (graceful)

Susan is as _____ as her cousin Sheena. (thin)

Some of the following sentences may have ONE grammatical error.
If there is an error, show this by writing one of the CAPITAL LETTERS,
A, B or C in the brackets to the right to indicate where the error is found.
If there is no error in the sentence write D in the brackets.

EXAMPLE: I is / going to / town tomorrow

A B C (A)

I have / not done / nothing to you.

A B C ()

A number of / students are / awaiting their results.

A B C ()

I think / that it is / going to reign soon.

A B C ()

I think / the price is / beneath ten dollars.

A B C ()