

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Hand Stitches

Section A True/False

1. _____ Hemming Stitch is used to hold the folded edges of hems in place.
2. _____ Tailors tack, running stitch and basting stitches are examples of temporary stitches.
3. _____ Stitches that hold the garment together, for the lifespan of the garment are called permanent stitches.
4. _____ The running stitch resembles the machine stitch.
5. _____ Decorative stitches are used to add designs to fabric.
6. _____ The stem stitch is best suited to use for an outline or for a flower stem.
7. _____ Decorative stitches are temporary.
8. _____ To prevent your stitches from loosing you can knot the thread ends before you start stitching and after.
9. _____ Work your stitches from right to left if left-handed.
10. _____ Thread should be cut beyond arm's length to prevent tangling.

Section B Name the stitch pictured below.

