

B2.2 Vocabulary

Complete the sentences with the corresponding words. Check if the word is singular or plural. Put the verbs in the correct form.

Portrayal, fuss, stagehand, playwright, vicious, count, deal, host, stunt, despite

1. The police said this was one of the most attacks they'd ever seen.
2. I thought mum would make a because I arrived late, but actually she was in a good mood.
3. He was able to lead a normal life his illness.
4. Tom Cruise has performed his own for Mission Impossible 2, defying warnings from professionals.
5. Stop complaining about your job and your blessings. In this economy, you're lucky to be working.
6. Jamie Foxx's of Ray Charles in the movie "Ray" was uncanny since he looked and sang just like the blind musician.
7. I have a great of respect for my supervisor because he's very honest and supportive.
8. The were asked to carry several pieces of furniture off set and into storage rooms.
9. Shakespeare is quite possible the most well-known in the world.

10. The city an annual beer-tasting festival which is very popular.