Track 39

Tom: Hey, Sandra, how's it going? What do you think of the campus?

Sandra: I think it's all fantastic. Have you been to the _____ in the library, yet?

Tom: No, I haven't. Where is it?

Sandra: It's _____ You know, you can have a break without actually leaving the library. It's really great to _____ there.

Tom: Yeah. That's an excellent idea. And it means you've got somewhere to chat without upsetting people who want to _____ I can't concentrate when other people are talking. I usually go upstairs to work in the silent zone, on the _____ Sandra: Oh, do you? Is it difficult to study at home, then? Where do you live?

Tom: I'm living in a _____ on campus.

Sandra: Oh, right. It must be tough trying to study in your room.

Tom: Yeah ... It's pretty noisy, especially at the _____. Are you living on campus, too?

Sandra: Yes. I'm on campus, but there are only _____ people our house. So it tends to be a bit _____ It's at the end of the footpath, not far from the _____ Tom: Oh, right. I know where you mean. I play football on the pitch next to the _____ I spend quite a lot of time around there.

Sandra: Well, next time you're in that part, let me know. You can come round for _____
