

Present Simple and Present Continuous

Mr. Bean is special. He does things differently from ordinary people. Today, he is doing everything in his own funny way.

Watch the video and do the activities.

1. Drag and drop the phrases to the right box in the order they appear in the video.
2. Put the verbs in the correct form of the Present Simple or Present Continuous.

An ordinary man -----Present Simple

Mr. Bean -----Present Continuous

Mr. Bean

drive with his feet on the wheel not park where there is another car tie his shoelaces while driving stop his alarm clock with water hold the accelerator down with his foot hold the accelerator down with a brick hang clothes to dry just tie his shoelaces push a car away to take its place hang the alarm clock to dry brush his teeth in the bathroom spit out the toothpaste on a plumber get dressed at home drive with his hands on the wheel stop the alarm clock with the button get dressed in the car spit out the toothpaste in the sink brush his teeth in the car

An ordinary man....	Mr. Bean today... stop the alarm clock with the button stops the alarm clock with the button	stop his alarm clock with water is stopping the alarm clock with water

Vocabulary to help you

brick

brush your teeth

hang clothes to dry

hold the accelerator down

Sink/basin

spit out

steering wheel / wheel

tie your shoelaces

toothpaste

get dressed