IV. Read the following passage and choose the best answer.

SOCK PUPPETS

A sock is a wonderful thing. It can warm a foot, that's for sure. Better yet, it can be made into different critters. Let's see how

- Put your hand into a sock. Your fingers and thumb are in the "toe" part. The back of your wrist is in the "heel" part.
- To make room for your puppet's mouth, make a slit in the sock between your thumb and fingers.
- Cut two ovals, one of posterboard and one of fabric.
- Paste the fabric oval to the posterboard oval with white glue.
- Once the glue is dried, fold them in half.
- Sew the folded oval into your sock.

Now, your puppet can talk.

What your puppet becomes depends on you. Think eyes, hair, ears, hats, moustaches, beards, eyebrows, noses, collars, neckties, shirts and dresses for your puppet.
