

Teil-Teil-Ganzes | Zehnerübergang

$$\textcircled{7} + \textcircled{5} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 5 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{8} + \textcircled{6} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 6 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{9} + \textcircled{3} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 3 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{6} + \textcircled{5} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 5 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{7} + \textcircled{8} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 8 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{5} + \textcircled{9} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 9 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{6} + \textcircled{7} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 7 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.

$$\textcircled{8} + \textcircled{5} = \textcirc{\hspace{1cm}}$$

Diagram: The number 5 is in a circle with two arrows pointing down to two empty circles.