POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

Name: _____

Date: _____

A possessive pronoun can take the place of a possessive noun. It shows who or what has or owns something.

E.g. Charlize's book is on the table.

Her book is on the table.

Write the correct possessive pronoun in parentheses on the line.

1. Cindy explained (her, hers) idea for a raffle. _____
2. Jamal and Kali told about (their, theirs) plan for a bake sale. _____
3. Mr. Lee liked all of (our, ours) suggestions. _____
4. Was the plan to vote for the best suggestion (your, yours)? _____
5. Mr. Lee said to remember (our, ours) purpose when we vote. _____

Read each sentence carefully. Replace the underlined word or words with a possessive pronoun from the box below. Make sure that the pronoun matches the noun to which it refers.

his	Their	Theirs	Mine	Her

6. Takeia's idea received two votes. _____
7. Tristan and Diontae's plan got four votes. _____
8. Three people liked David's suggestion best. _____
9. My idea also received three votes. _____
10. Tristan and Diontae's got more votes than most of the other ideas. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS