Do you like sports? Are you one of those fans that go to the stadium to cheer their team every weekend? I am.

I love football. I play football with my friends at school and I also play with Santi my little brother in the park on Sundays. I watch all the matches on TV and I go to the stadium with my cousin Leo. He's a football fan too.

In 2010 I was 10 years old, my family and I went to South Africa to see Uruguay play the World Cup. Uruguay didn't win a medal but we got in the 4th place and Diego Forlán won the Golden Ball because he was the best player of the tournament. When the players returned to Montevideo people celebrated in the streets. It was fantastic!

If you like football, you can visit the Football Museum in the Centenario Stadium. It opens at 10 am and closes at 5 pm from Monday to Friday. There you can see historical objects for example flags, T-shirts and photographs.
