TKT practice task 24 (See page 245 for answers)

For questions 1-7, look at the incomplete statements about adapting coursebook materials and the three options for completing them listed A, B and C.

Two of the options complete the statements correctly. One option does NOT.

Choose the letter (A, B or C) which does NOT complete the statement correctly.

1 If the material is too young for the age of the learners, we can

- A replace cartoons with photographs.
- B find more motivating texts.
- C introduce more kinaesthetic activities.

2 If the material is culturally inappropriate, we can

- A make the material more challenging.
- B adapt unsuitable tasks.
- C use a different context for presenting.

3 If the grammar revision in the book isn't enough for the learners, we can

- A write some extra material.
- B change the interaction patterns.
- C adapt exercises from earlier units.

4 If the practice material is too easy for some students, we can

- A find extension or supplementary exercises.
- B provide lists of key words.
- C find new texts on other topics.

5 If there isn't enough controlled practice material, we can

- A re-use the same material.
- B extend exercises in the book following the same pattern.
- C use the pictures in the book for further practice.

6 If the practice material is presented without any clear context, we can

- A add visuals.
- B suggest that learners consult a dictionary of culture.
- C add a sentence or two to provide background.

7 If there isn't enough reading skills development, we can

- A set up a class library of graded readers.
- B ask students to read the texts aloud.
- C find an appropriate supplementary skills book.
