

Choose the sentence which means the same as the given one:

1. He would get the job without any qualifications.
A. He didn't need any qualifications to get the job.
B. Getting the job didn't earn him any qualifications.
C. Qualifications could help him get the job.
D. He would not have any qualifications before getting the job.
2. They have not returned to the hometown since the war broke out.
A. The war broke out and they returned to their hometown.
B. They didn't return to their hometown when the war broke out.
C. From the time the war broke out, they returned to their hometown.
D. The last time they were in their hometown was before the war broke out.
3. The accident happened because the truck driver lost control of his truck.
A. The truck driver could not keep the truck under control, so he caused the accident.
B. The accident was caused by the truck driver without his losing control of his truck.
C. Losing control of his truck, the accident happened.
D. The truck was out of control due to the accident.
4. The parking area is inadequate for the tremendous number of drivers who will want to park there.
A. The number of drivers who want to park is not adequate for the parking area.
B. The parking area is too small for a great many drivers who want to park their cars there.
C. Such a big number of drivers who will want to park that the parking area is not enough for them.
D. Parking is impossible in this area though many drivers will want to park there.

5. The policeman would have written a ticket if he had had time.
 - A. The policeman was likely to write a ticket, but he did not have time.
 - B. The policeman did not write a ticket though he had time.
 - C. The policeman had time to write a ticket, but he wouldn't.
 - D. Unless the policeman had had time, he would not have written a ticket.
6. The actor would not play the role unless the script had been changed.
 - A. The script may be changed, and the actor will agree to play the role.
 - B. The actor didn't play the role because the script was changed.
 - C. The actor agrees to play because the script has been changed.
 - D. The script changed and the actor does not want to play the role.
7. She has offered me the job, but I am still sleeping on it.
 - A. I will get the job if I do not sleep on.
 - B. After thinking carefully, she has offered me the job.
 - C. Given the job by her, I am so happy about it.
 - D. I am still thinking whether to take the job she has offered or not.
8. He used to dream of becoming a pilot, but he failed the tests.
 - A. He failed the tests to become a pilot, for he dreamed a lot.
 - B. His dream of becoming a pilot did not come true due to his failure in tests.
 - C. Dreaming has led to his failure in becoming a pilot.
 - D. Being a pilot, he failed to dream a lot.

9. That was the most imaginative improvisation I had ever heard.
 - A. I have never heard such an imaginative improvisation.
 - B. The improvisation I heard was more imaginative than those I had heard.
 - C. No improvisation is as imaginative as the one I heard.
 - D. I most imaginatively heard the improvisation.
10. Many jobs are available in the field of nurse if you accept a low salary.
 - A. As a nurse, you accept a low salary despite many other jobs.
 - B. A nurse may have many jobs providing that she accepts a low salary.
 - C. Low salary is available for many nurses.
 - D. The field of nurse accepts many low-paid salary owners.
11. It is time you reconsidered your decision.
 - A. You are right to have made such a decision.
 - B. It is necessary for you to think more carefully about your decision.
 - C. Your decision is about time to be made.
 - D. You wrongly made a decision about time.
12. No other student than Jack will be able to join the talent contest.
 - A. Jack is the only student to be able to join the talent contest.
 - B. No student can join the talent contest due to Jack.
 - C. All of the students except Jack will be able to join the talent contest.
 - D. The talent contest is for all the students but Jack.

13. It is necessary that you speak slowly and clearly during the interview.
- A. Speaking slowly and clearly can earn you an interview.
 - B. You speak slowly and clearly enough to get an interview.
 - C. An interview is necessary for slow and clear speakers.
 - D. You should speak slowly and clearly when you are at an interview.
14. By the time the ship left, I had had enough time to say goodbye to Mom.
- A. I said goodbye to Mom the time when the ship was leaving.
 - B. Leaving the ship, I said goodbye to Mom in time.
 - C. I had time to say goodbye to Mom before the leaving of the ship.
 - D. Ship having left, I said goodbye to Mom.
15. Julia is the most helpful person I have ever met.
- A. Julia is not as helpful as the people I have met.
 - B. I have ever met more helpful people than Julia.
 - C. I have never met a more helpful person than Julia.
 - D. No other person I have met is as helpful than Julia.
16. The children were counting the toys and candy they had collected during the festivities.
- A. The children collected toys and candy during the festivities and they were counting them.
 - B. Having counted the toys and candy, the children were collecting them for the festivities.
 - C. The children counted the toys and candy during the festivities.
 - D. Collecting the toys and candy during the festivities, the children were counting them.

17. The earliest arrivals had to endure the discomfort of wading across the river.
- A. The earliest arrivals had to wade across the river with comfort.
 - B. Due to the discomfort of the river, the arrivals could not come early.
 - C. To endure the discomfort of wading across the river, they had to arrive early.
 - D. Those who arrived earliest had to endure the discomfort of wading across the river.
18. One series of grammar books that was used in the experimental class was written by the students themselves.
- A. The students could write one series of grammar books which was used in the experimental class.
 - B. One series of grammar books was used in the experimental class to teach students writing.
 - C. Written by the students themselves, one series of grammar books was experimented in class.
 - D. One series of grammar books was written by the students themselves in the experimental class.
19. If Ursula had more time, she would take up taekwondo.
- A. Ursula did not have enough time to take up taekwondo.
 - B. Ursula takes up taekwondo though she does not have enough time.
 - C. Ursula wishes that she could have more time to take up taekwondo.
 - D. Ursula would not take up taekwondo because she had little time.
20. Young as Nina is, she can make the best of every job she is given.
- A. Nina is young, but every job given to her is perfectly done.
 - B. Those who are as young as Nina can make the best of every job she is given.
 - C. Nina is given the jobs though she is young.
 - D. Nina makes the best jobs because she is young.

21. Shouldn't you start revising for your exams now?
- A. It is time you revised for your exams.
 - B. Is it OK if you start revising for your exams?
 - C. Revising for your exams is a must.
 - D. You shouldn't start revising for your exams.
22. Because of my forgetfulness, everybody was locked out.
- A. Everybody was locked out due to my forgetfulness.
 - B. I was forgetful so that everybody could be locked out.
 - C. I forgot locking everybody out.
 - D. Everybody was locked out; that is why I forgot.
23. I would rather have spent my summer holidays in Sydney.
- A. I would prefer to spend my summer holidays in Sydney.
 - B. I didn't spend my summer holidays in Sydney, and now I regret.
 - C. I wished I could spend my summer holidays in Sydney.
 - D. If only I spent my summer holidays in Sydney.
24. As soon as the steamboat came, the children cheered wildly.
- A. Having cheered wildly, the children welcomed the steamboat.
 - B. Coming on the steamboat made the children so happy.
 - C. The children cheered wildly to welcome the steamboat.
 - D. The steamboat came after the children cheered wildly.

25. Fingerprints might have proved that the suspect was at the scene of the crime.
- A. It was certain that the suspect was at the scene of the crime due to his fingerprints.
 - B. Fingerprints are proved to have belonged to the suspect at the scene of the crime.
 - C. The suspect might be at the scene of the crime though his fingerprints have not been proved.
 - D. It was possible that fingerprints proved the presence of the suspect at the scene of the crime.
26. The robots grasp, fasten and paint the parts that are too dangerous for humans to handle.
- A. The robots are too dangerous to handle, so humans have to grasp, fasten and paint them.
 - B. Grasping, fastening and painting the parts are too dangerous for both humans and robots.
 - C. Handling the parts is so dangerous that humans, not robots, grasp, fasten and paint them.
 - D. The parts which are too dangerous for humans to handle are grasped, fastened and painted by the robots.
27. She is in danger of losing her job because of her attitude.
- A. She is at risk of losing her job to her attitude.
 - B. It is dangerous for her to lose her job to her attitude.
 - C. Her attitude puts her job at risk.
 - D. Despite her attitude, she risks losing her job.

28. You should be tolerant of other people's weaknesses.
- A. You should make allowances for other people's weaknesses.
 - B. You should be tolerated despite other people's weaknesses.
 - C. Other people are tolerant of weaknesses.
 - D. Your weaknesses should be tolerated by other people.
29. Bob said that my new hairstyle was nice.
- A. Bob thought much of my new hairstyle.
 - B. Bob congratulated me on my new hairstyle.
 - C. Bob complimented me on my new hairstyle.
 - D. My new hairstyle was nice, said Bob.
30. There is very little chance of them winning the game.
- A. It is very likely that they will win the game.
 - B. There is likelihood that they will little win the game.
 - C. It is highly likely that they will not win the game.
 - D. They have chances of winning the game.