Have you had a terrible day? On my most terrible day so far, I (break) my arm. Luckily, my good friend Brandon was me. He is one of the helpful and sympathetic people I know.

Three months , Brandon and I (skateboard) when I suddenly (fall) and (get) hurt. Brandon ran and found my mum. While she (run) to where I was, she called for an ambulance. After examining me, the paramedics told my mum that my arm was broken, so they me to hospital.

..... I came back from the hospital, I had a heavy plaster cast on my right arm; it felt hot and itchy, and I bend my elbow. That is the arm I use the most, so I felt as helpless a baby! "Don't worry," Brandon said, "I (help) you." school, he carried my lunch tray. He wrote things down for me in class. school, he helped me put on my coat. Whenever there was I couldn't do, Brandon was there help me.

The day I broke my arm was terrible; , I had a great helper! Now my arm is fine. Brandon always (play) ball with me and we (go) skateboarding just like I will forget what Brandon did for me when I needed a helping hand... If he ever (need) my help, I (be) there for my great friend.
