

LINK-IN (FRACTION)

Kindly complete the pancake recipe table below.

Note: Always reduce in lowest term to get the perfect amount of the ingredients.

|                                                              |                                                                                     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| $\frac{1}{2}$ of $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of all-purpose flour=     |  |
| 2 of $\frac{3}{2}$ tablespoon of sugar=                      |                                                                                     |
| 3 of $\frac{4}{3}$ tablespoon of baking powder=              |                                                                                     |
| $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1 teaspoon salt=                            |                                                                                     |
| 3 of $\frac{9}{4}$ teaspoon of butter or margarine=          |                                                                                     |
| 10 of $\frac{1}{10}$ large egg=                              |                                                                                     |
| $\frac{9}{2}$ of $\frac{12}{20}$ cups of honey/melted sugar= |                                                                                     |