

Little women

On a cold evening in December, the girls are near the fireplace in the dining room. Their mother is not at home yet, and the girls want to talk about the New Year and the gifts they want to give their mother. Margaret, or Meg, as her sisters call her, is a very nice girl. She is sixteen years old. Meg teaches small children in the family of their friends. She gets some money for her work and helps her family. Meg wants to be a teacher.

Sophia or Sonya is fifteen. She is tall and slim with long wavy hair. Sonya wants to write stories and be a writer. Now she works at the house of an old woman. She looks after the woman, helps her in the house, reads books to her and gets some money for her work.

Elizabeth, or Beth, is thirteen. She is a tall girl with brown eyes. Beth likes music and learns to play the piano. She wants to teach music. She helps their mother in the house- dusts the tables, the chairs and the bookcases, sweeps the floor and washes the plates.

Amy is twelve. She has fair hair and large blue eyes. Amy goes to school. Some girls laugh at her old dresses and she does not like school. She wants to be an artist. Amy helps her mother in the kitchen.

It is six o'clock in the afternoon and the time when their mother comes home. Meg brings the lamp into the dining room. Sophia puts her mother's shoes near the fire. She looks at the old shoes and says, "The shoes are very old. Mother must have new shoes."

"I want to give mother new shoes for the New Year," says Beth.

"No," says Amy, "I want to give mother new shoes."

"I am the eldest-"begins Meg, but Sophia goes on, "I take the place of the man in the family now when father is far from home, I want to give mother new shoes. "

Then Meg looks at her hands and says, " I want to give mother new gloves. "

" I have some nice handkerchiefs for mother", says Beth. Amy looks at her sisters and then tells them: " I want to give mother a little bottle of scent. I have a dollar and I can buy it."

As that time the door in the hall opens and their mother comes in. She is a tall woman. Her clothes are old, but the girls look at their mother and see the most beautiful woman in the whole world.
