

Past Tense Verbs

The past tense of a verb tells about something that has already happened. Add d or ed to most verbs to show action that has already happened.

Directions: Write the verb in brackets () in its past tense form to show action that has already happened.

1. The chef _____ cheeseburger on Tuesday. (cook)
2. She _____ at ballet class. (dance)
3. Liam _____ the car yesterday after school. (wash)
4. The old man _____ at his grandson. (smile)
5. The dog _____ the bike down the street. (follow)
6. Justin _____ basketball on the park. (play)
7. The students _____ to the bus stop. (walk)
8. The flowers _____ better yesterday. (look)
9. I _____ a gift from my aunt. (accept)
10. Yesterday, my mother _____ the clean clothes. (fold)