

WRITING UPDATE

This → se utiliza para nombres en singular (este/esta)

These → es la forma plural de this (estos/estas).

That → se usa para nombres en singular (ese/esa o aquel/aquella)

Those → es la forma plural de that (esos/esas o aquellos/aquellas)

1. Complete the sentences with this or these.

- a. _____ pencils are mine. You can use _____ pen if you want.
- b. I think my sister won't like _____ pumpkin pie.
- c. Where are _____ sneakers from? Adidas?
- d. _____ jokes are not funny. You should take _____ situation more seriously.

2. Complete the sentences with that or those.

- a. I think _____ house is on fire!
- b. Can you see _____ dogs playing in the field?
- c. _____ guys were my friends but _____ day we argued.
- d. Can you pass me _____ book?

Person is a common noun used in the singular. People is the plural form of person.

Person → persona.

People → personas.

1. Complete the sentences with person or people.

- a. How many _____ are there in the room?
- b. I saw a _____ stealing food from Lidl.
- c. Some _____ travel to Turkey to get a hair transplant.
- d. She is a good _____. You can trust her.

1. Complete the following sentences using much or many.

- a. _____ people come to Spain on holidays.
- b. How _____ money do you need?
- c. _____ salt in your food can cause health problems.
- d. People in this neighborhood have _____ problems.
- e. Too _____ chocolate is not good. You can eat _____ fruits instead.

2. Complete the following sentences with some or any.

- a. _____ of my friends live in Salobreña.
- b. Do you have _____ tissue paper?
- c. I think _____ of these people don't know anything about cars.
- d. I don't have _____ money.