

> 3.2 Using regular and irregular verbs

Language detective

When we talk about things that happened in the past, we change the ending of the verb. Some verbs are regular:

jump – jumped

Some are irregular:

buy – bought, think – thought, swim – swam

Many of the most common verbs are irregular. Make a list and learn them.

Focus

- 1 Match the present and past form of these irregular verbs.

One has been done for you.

Present

write

swim

see feel

say

swam

- 2 Read the paragraph from the story. Complete the sentences using the verb form in the past.

The two boys (walk) ¹_____ on.

Soon they (come) ²_____ to a cool green oasis with trees, birds and a waterhole.

Ibrahim (jump) ³_____ in the water to cool off. Hassan (rest) ⁴_____ on the shore. Suddenly Hassan (see)

⁵_____ that his friend (is) ⁶_____ in trouble. 'Oh no,' thought

Hassan. 'Ibrahim is in deep water and he can't swim!' Hassan shouted, 'Keep calm, Ibrahim! I'm coming to help you.' Hassan (swim) ⁷_____ quickly to Ibrahim.

He (help) ⁸_____ Ibrahim get back to the shore.

Get it right!

Remember, you need to change the verb if you are talking about the past.

I eat ~~ate~~ an ice cream yesterday.
