Vocabulary. Books genre

Match words with their definitions folk tales	-	is created by and exists only in the mind imaginary	-	stories in which main roles are played by animals fantasy	-	books, films, or cartoons about an imagined future, especially about space travel or other planets protagonist	-	the time and the place in which the action of a book, film, play, etc. happens author	-	a type of story or literature that is set in an imaginary world, often involving traditional myths and magical creatures and sometimes ideas or events from the real world, especially from the medieval period of history settings	-	an ancient story or set of stories, especially explaining the early history of a group of people or about natural events and facts fairy tales	-	a story that parents have passed on to their children through speech over many years genre	-	any large or small living thing that can move independently animal stories	-	a long printed story about imaginary characters and events. Can be mysteries, romance, thrillers, science fiction, fantasy, historical fiction etc.

fairies	-	a style, especially in the arts, that involves a particular set of characteristics unexplainable	-	the writer of a book, article, play, etc. chapter	-	any of the separate parts into which a book or other piece of text is divided, usually given a number or title sci-fi	-	the type of book or story that is written about imaginary characters and events and not based on real people and facts fiction	-	an imaginary creature with magic powers, usually represented as a very small person with wings creature	-	strange and frightening story novel	-	one of the main characters in a story or a play spooky stories	-	a traditional story written for children that usually involves imaginary creatures and magic myths	-	are ones for events, behavior etc. which people do not know or understand the reason

LIVEWORKSHEETS