

HOMOPHONES

Homophones are words that sound the same,
but have different spelling and meanings.

Choose the correct spelling word, to form a logic sentence.

1. The is in the center of our solar system. (sun – son)
2. I need a new of socks. (pear – pair)
3. Even when you whisper, I still you. (here – hear)
4. There was just person at the end of the race. (one – won)
5. Mom put some in the bowl. (flower – flour)
6. James didn't have a very goodsleep. (knight – night)
7. Tony was chased by a big (bear – bare)
8. Have anotherof cake! It's delicious! (piece – peace)
9. I musta letter to my brother. (right – write)
10. I like tonext to my Mom. (bee – be)
11. You have anfor things such as these. (I – eye)
12. My son drives a bigcar. (blue – blew)
13. Ithe newspaper yesterday. (red – read)
14. The dogs use theironly in black and white. (sight – site)
15. There are lots of fish in the (sea – see)
16. I have pairs of shoes. (four – for)
17. I'll meet you in an (our – hour)
18. You have toyour beautiful costume tonight. (where – wear)
19. Youhow much I love you! (know – no)
20. We are going to the zoo,! (to – too – two)

