One of the most important parts of this method of language learning is the telling of stories. Twice every day, at the end of the morning and after sessions, the teacher reads us a boring story about the Familie Gartner. We were given the text : German on the left_ hand side, the translation on the right-hand side. Then she told us to lie back and close our eyes while she read the text again, and the music played in the background. Afterwards, we could remember most of the details and the vocabulary.
