LET'S PRACTISE! LISTENING COMPREHENSION COMPLETE THE BLANKS.

We traveled to three different countries, asking teenagers to define (1)..... it means to be a good citizen. We spoke with Carl from Denmark, Aanya from India, and Noelia from Peru. Let's hear (2)..... they have to say!

What is a good citizen?

Carl: A good citizen is a person (3)..... respect the rules and always helps other people.

Aanya: Being a good (4)..... means to be part of a society and to help that society be better.

Noelia: I think that a good citizen is a good person. She or he is a person who (5)..... the community a good place for everybody.

What (6)..... we do to be good citizens?

Carl: Well, you should be respectful of others, and you should respect other property too. Oh! And you (7)..... destroy or damage public property, like parks.

Aanya: Mmmh... I think they should respect the traffic rules, the school rules, all the rules of society, but you should also speak up if the rules are unfair.

Noelia: To be a good citizen you should (8)..... others and be a good person, generally speaking.

You shouldn't disrespect others and you should take care of public property.

Can teenagers be good citizens?

Carl: Yes! Of course. (9)..... are citizens too. We don't vote yet, but our actions are important for the community.

Aanya: I think so... I mean, yes! Teenagers are also part of (10)....., so my answer is yes!

Noelia: Yes, we can! We should try to be good citizens every day, to make our country a better place to live for (11).....
