The story of WhatsApp

A

Jan Koum was born in 1976 in Kiev, Ukraine. His family was poor and their house didn't have hot water or electricity. When Koum was 16, he and his mother went to live in California, U.S. Life was hard and they didn't always have money or food. Koum worked in a store to earn money, but he also studies computer science from books.

He went to San José State University but he didn't finish his studies.

B

In 1997, Koum found a job with the Information and Technology company Yahoo! and met Brian Acton. Koum and Acton worked together for nine years and became friends. In 1997, they left Yahoo! and traveled to South America. When they returned to California, Koum and Acton applied for jobs at Facebook, but didn't get them.

C

In 2009, Koum bought a smartphone and used apps for the first time. This gave him an idea. On Koum's 33rd birthday, he started WhatsApp with Acton. The company didn't make money right away, but Koum and Acton knew they had a good idea, so they didn't give up. And they were right. In 2015, they sold WhatsApp for $19 billion!

Hello friend! I'm Jessy McCartney. I'm 35 years old and I am a receptionist at a four-star hotel here in Florida.

I'm tall and thin. I have long blond hair and blue eyes. People always tell me that I look like my mother. I live in an apartment with my boyfriend, Josh and my son Roger. We don't have a pet. Roger is 39 and he is an accountant. He works for an important film company. We spend a lot of time together; we have dinner and play games every day. On weekends, we go to the movies and have fun!

Let me tell you about my last holidays! We traveled to Finland last year. We rented a beautiful cottage in Helsinki. It was winter, so it was very cold there! We went skiing, hiking and sightseeing almost every day. I really loved snow! We also ate out and tried different food. The food was so tasty!

I really want to come back someday. What about you?

Love, Jessy.
