Watch the video and choose the RIGHT answer

1. What is "tipping culture"?
   A. Leaving some money for the waiter or waitress as a thank for their survices
   B. Giving some money for the waiter or waitress as wish of luck for them.
2. Do Vietnamese have tipping culture?
   A. No, but people can ask if they want to get the tips or not.
   B. No, but people can still leave some tips if they want
3. How should people give tips in Vietnam?
   A. Give it to the host or the owner
   B. Give it to the waiter or waitress directly
   C. Put it on the table.
4. Why you should not leave the tips on the table as she said in the video?
   A. Because another person can take it
   B. Because the owner may take it.
   C. Because the owner doesn't want it.
5. Is this statement TRUE OR FALSE? "Vietnamese people don't accept gifts from foreigners, especially money."
   A. True because we feel uncomfortable to receive money.
   B. False because we still like it but we have high context.
6. What does "high context culture" mean base on the video?
   A. People don't say or do what they think or want
   B. People don't say or do what they don't want.
7. Do Vietnamese people want to receive the monkey right after you give them?
   A. No, they completely don't want money as a gift.
   B. Yes, but they don't take it for the first time.
8. What trait does the girl like about Vietnamese people?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A. Vietnamese people are very hard-working, be able to adapt quickly in any environment.

B. Vietnamese people are very hard-working, and they can survive and thrive in difficulty situations.

9. "Viet Kieu is an indispensable part of Vietnam." What does indispensable mean?

A. Very rich or wealthy

B. Significant or important

10. In what special occasions people can give gifts as what the girl says?

A. Lunar New year, Wedding, Valentine's Day, House Warming, birthday

B. House Warming, Valentine's Day, Christmas, Lunar New Yeah, Wedding

11. If you are invited by a host, what should you know? And why?

A. If they have any children or elderly people living with them because it helps you to choose some gifts for them.

B. If they have any children or elderly people living with them because you have to buy some gifts for them.

12. What gifts are recommended for elderly people?

A. Something good for their health like: wine, tea, vitamins, supplements, flowers

B. Something good for their health like: alcohol, vitamins, supplements, flowers

13. What do Vietnamese people use Mum flowers for?

A. For giving people in their death.

B. For dead people as honoring them

14. What does nhậu in Vietnam can mean?

A. Eating, drinking, talking as a way to help their business successful and to keep relationships work well

B. Eating, drinking, talking as a way to build up and maintain relationships and social harmony

15. What does "collectivist culture" mean in business?

A. People value group and community over an individual

B. People value based-relationship over based-work.

16. Why are Vietnamese people kind and friendly?

A. Because of family education, school education and their religion as well.

B. Because of education at school, education at home and only Buddhism and Confucianism.

17. Why do Vietnamese eat on the ground at home especially with friends during holidays?

A. They invite too many people and the house is not big enough but they want to enjoy all together.

B. They invite too many people and they want to have hot pot and they don't want to seat alone.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. What does “dialect” mean?
    A. A language
    B. An accent
19. Why do Northern and Southern Vietnamese people have hard time understanding each other sometimes?
    A. Because of some different vocabularies, and different hobbies to express things from different countries.
    B. Because of some different vocabularies, different tone, voice, and accent from different roots.
20. What is “alter” mean?
    A. A place in a house to worship our ancestors
    B. A place in a house to ask for blessings and advice for life and business
21. Why do Vietnam share many Chinese cultures?
    A. Because Vietnam was colonized for more than 1000 years
    B. Because Vietnam lived with Chinese people more than 1000 years.
22. What does “Lộc / Thọ / Phúc” mean as the girl explains?
    A. Wealth – Longevity - Fortune
    B. Fortune – Wealth – Longevity

LIVEWORKSHEETS