BETA SCHOOL

INNOVATION, INSPIRATION, INTERNATIONALISATION, INTEGRITY

Name:

Class:

It's easy to confuse certain numbers that sound similar, for example fifteen and fifty. Listen very carefully to hear which part of the word is spoken with more emphasis.

1. Listen and choose the numbers you hear.

18 13 15 30 80 40 14 50

2. Now listen to these sentences and write down the numbers you hear.

1. 2. 3. 4. 5.

3. Listen to the following conversations and choose the correct answer:

McKeon	McEwan	MacKeon
Westborne	Westerborne	Westbourne

4. You will hear a telephone conversation in which Sam is booking a taxi. First look at the form below and think about the kind of information you will need. Then listen and complete the form.

TIP: You will be expected to know the spellings of common words and names. Any usual names will be spelt out for you. An answer spelt wrongly will be marked incorrect, so get plenty of practice before the exam.
