

Vocabulary- How do animals respond to the environment?

I. Listen. Click on the listening icon.

1.  Behaviors: They are the ways that animals act.

2.  Stimulus: It is something that causes a reaction in a living thing.

3.  Instinct: It is a behavior that is inherited. Instincts help animals meet their needs and respond to stimuli in their environments.

4.  Migration: The movement between habitats.

5.  Hibernation: This is a state of inactivity that occurs in some animals outside temperatures are cold.

II. Listen and speak. Click on the  icon. Then, record your voice by clicking on the .

1.  Migration: _____

2.  Instinct: _____

3.  Hibernation: _____

III. Listen and write. Click on the  icon to hear the word. Then, write it on the line.

1.  _____

2.  _____

3.  _____

4.  _____

5.  _____

IV. Complete the statements using the words from word bank.

Behaviors

Migration

Stimulus

1. _____ The movement between habitats.

2. _____ They are the ways that animals act.

3. _____ It is something that causes a reaction in a living thing.

V. Look and write a word for each picture.

Behaviors

Migration

Stimulus

Hibernation

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____