Text for No. 15

Every weekend I go to traditional market with my mom. There are many things I can see in the traditional market. The seller, butcher, fishmonger, fruit and vegie stalls, groceries, fashion shops and street vendors. There are lots of vehicles in the parking lot, such as cars, motorcycles, bicycles, and pedi cabs. My mom usually buys vegetables such as; carrot, tomato, onion, garlic, spinach. Fruits such as mango, apple, banana, watermelon, and melon. She also buys daily needs at one of the grocery in traditional market such as; 20kg rice, 1kg of eggs, milk, tea, coffee, sugar and butter. I like shopping in traditional market. It is complete and the price is cheaper than the price in the supermarket. I can bargain the price but there is one thing I dislike. There is few trashcans in the traditional market. It's a little bit dirty, stinky and wet during the rainy season.

15. When does the writer usually go to traditional market?
    A. Every day B. Every morning C. Every afternoon D. Every weekend

My School Library

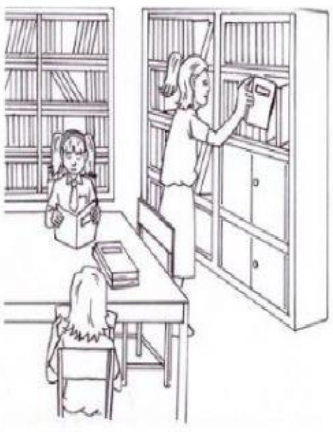

My school library is located in front of my school. It is big and tidy.

There are many kinds of book put on the shelf, they are text books, novels, encyclopedias, folk stories, dictionaries and magazines.

The students can visit the library every day when they need. The visitors of the library always keep their voice to be silent because if they make noise they will disturb others.

The students can read the books and borrow them to read in their house if they have a member card of the library.

The library can help the students to get more information and knowledge
