Hello everyone! My name is Sophie. I 'm from California. I live with my mother, father And brother. In my town, there is a fountain with coloured lights and music. There is a cathedral, but it isn't big and there are three new parks near the train station.

I like talking to friends and playing board games but I love playing cards! My dad loves playing golf with his friends and my mum loves doing exercise. My brother likes taking photos and playing frisbee. See you!! Bye bye!
