

NOTES ABOUT CLASSICISM IN MUSIC

by Julia Cea

Classicism is a period of [] between Baroque and Romanticism. The three most important composers during this period were, in chronological order: [], [] and [].

Haydn was considered the [] of the symphony because he composed more than []

Mozart was a []. He wrote his first composition when he was 4 years old.

Beethoven was the first [] composer. He was a [] because he invented a new musical []

Beethoven

romantic

pioneer

Mozart

father

language

Haydn

Transition

One hundred

Prodigy child