

HOUSING

1) What is it called in English?

2) Translate the vocabulary

byt

podlaží

schody

střecha

nábytek

plot

výtah

topení

3) Match the pieces of furniture with the rooms (where you can find them)

armchair

bathroom

bed

hall

washbasin

cellar

PC

living room

refrigerator

attic

car

study

old furniture

bedroom

shoe rack

kitchen

workbench

garage

4) Describe this room/Complete the text with the missing words ___ the picture _____ is a room, probably a _____. The _____ are painted white and yellow. In the foreground there is a _____ in the left _____. The bed is brown. On the bed there are red blankets and three _____. _____ the bed there is a picture. Next to the bed there is a white _____. On the right there is a big French _____ with colourful _____. Opposite the bed there is a _____. On the fireplace there is a candle and a green _____. Over the fireplace there is a _____. There is white _____ on the floor.

5) Answer the questions in as many details as possible. Use at least 5 sentences.

Where do you live? Describe your place of living.

Do you prefer living in a village or in a city? Why? (advantages and disadvantages)

What kind of household chores do we have to do?

- A university student wants to _____ an apartment.
- The person who owns or leases an apartment is called a _____
- An arranged meeting is called an _____
- A tenant is a person who _____
- If something was renovated it means that _____
- When all rooms in an apartment already have furniture it is _____
- If a kitchen has everything it is _____