Vocabulary: Commando Dad (page 30)

I. Match the words with definitions.

1. Approach (v.)	a. a book giving instructions on how to do or use sth
2. With Military precision	b. very organized and exact way
3. Forum (n.)	c. extremely good
4. Maneuver (v.)	d. to deal with
5. First-rate (adj.)	e. to turn and direct an object
6. Manual (n.)	f. a place on the internet where people can leave a message and discuss

1	2	3	4	5	6

II. Put the words in the correct sentences.

1. Sovann bought a new drone yesterday. He didn't know how to start and use it, so he read the _____.
2. Whenever he cannot _____ the problems, he usually looks for help from his parents or friends.
3. It is a _____ restaurant. Many people love going there.
4. There's a website that you can go to. I really like the _____ where we can write in with our problems or experiences to share with others on the website.
5. The lorry was unable to _____ comfortably in the narrow street.
6. The trips are planned _____.

Reading

Read the beginning of an article and the front cover about the book, Commando Dad. Complete the sentences below with a word/ words.

1. The book, Commando Dad: Basic Training, is written using _____ and military terms to help new fathers.
2. Working as a commando, Sinclair had experienced a number of hazardous _____.
3. Sinclair thought that it would be much more convenient to have a _____ for his first baby.
4. Sinclair was aware that there was nobody else who would be _____ to write the manual.
5. One of the basics included in Commando Dad is how to plan and get ready to avoid _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS