

Click, Clack, Moo: Cows That Type - Comprehension Questions

1. What kind of story is this?
 - a. Fantasy
 - b. Humorous fiction
 - c. Nonfiction
2. What is Farmer Brown's problem with the cows?
 - a. His cows eat all day long.
 - b. He does not have enough food for the cows.
 - c. His cows like to type.
3. What are the cows complaining about to Farmer Brown?
 - a. They want new typewriters.
 - b. They want electric blankets.
 - c. They want a diving board.
4. How do you think Farmer Brown feels when he sees the letter?
 - a. He is probably very surprised that the cows know how to write a letter.
 - b. He is surprised that they know about and want electric blankets.
 - c. Both a and b.
5. How did the cows feel when Farmer Brown ignored their request?
 - a. The cows go on strike.
 - b. The cows lock the doors to the barn.
 - c. The cows leave the farm.
6. Why is Farmer Brown so upset?
 - a. He is wondering how he will run his farm.
 - b. The cows stopped giving milk and the hens stopped giving eggs.
 - c. All of the above.
7. What did Farmer Brown write in his letter to the cows and hens?
 - a. He demanded that they give him milk and eggs.
 - b. He told them he would get them electric blankets.
 - c. He said he was going on a vacation.
8. Why did Duck deliver the notes to and from Farmer Brown and the cows?
 - a. He liked delivering mail.
 - b. He wanted some milk and eggs.
 - c. He wasn't on either side.
9. How was the problem solved in the story?
 - a. The cows went to sleep even without the electric blankets.
 - b. The cows made a trade with Farmer Brown.
 - c. Farmer Brown ran the farm even without milk and eggs.
10. Predict what will happen to the ducks if the story continued.

