Read the following story.
For questions 11 to 15, say whether the statements are True or False.
On your Answer Sheet, mark T if the statement is True and F if the statement is False.

Tim wasn't popular at school. He wasn't good at sports and he spent most of his time reading books.

Many of the other children thought he was strange and they were not nice to him. Bill was the opposite of Tim. He wasn't very smart, but everyone liked him and he was a great football player. But Bill liked Tim. Soon they became good friends and they did many things together. Bill taught Tim to play football and Tim helped Bill with his homework. Then one day, Tim's family moved to another city.

When he grew up, Bill went to college. When he finished university, he found a good job in a very large company. He worked hard and soon he made a lot of money. One day, Bill found out that the company belonged to his old school friend, Tim. Tim was a very rich man and no one thought he was strange anymore.

Now they are very good friends again, and they still play football together.

Match each statement with the right picture.
Mark A, B or C on your Answer Sheet.

Dear Sally,

I miss you so much. We had such a wonderful time in the summer.

Do you remember the big hotel we stayed at? It really had a large swimming pool. The food at the hotel restaurant was not good, but we really loved the food at the restaurant on the beach. It was delicious!

Next year I'd like to go to a summer camp. Many of my friends are going to a music camp. Would you like us to go, too? We will stay in tents and will have fun. This weekend, I'm going to visit my cousin. She lives in Italy. I have never been on a plane before and I feel scared. I'm sure I'll have a great time. It's winter, but the weather in Italy is warmer than it is in London so I can visit many places.

Please, write soon. I miss you a lot!

Love,

Mary
