Read the following story.
For questions 11 to 15, say whether the statements are True or False.
On your Answer Sheet, mark T if the statement is True and F if the statement is False.

Last Saturday, Jane was tired so she stayed in bed all day and watched television. "Jane, have you done your homework?" her mother asked her at noon. "Yes, mother," Jane lied. She had a lot of homework, but she had decided to do it on Sunday.

On Sunday morning, Jane's mother went into her room. "Jane, because you did your homework yesterday, I have a surprise for you," her mother said. "We're going to the theatre tonight!" Jane loved the theatre. At 7 o'clock, Jane and her parents went to the theatre. They returned home at 9:30. Jane went to her room and did her homework. She finished everything at midnight, and she felt very tired.

On Monday morning, she couldn't get up. "I will always do my homework on Saturday." She told herself.

Read the following email.
Match each statement with the right picture.
Mark A, B or C on your Answer Sheet.

Dear Jim,
How are you? I have read the most interesting book and I want to tell you about it. It's about a young boy, Chris, who loves adventures. There are a lot of funny stories in the book about what Chris does.

In the first story, Chris goes to a pet shop. He wants to buy a bunny, but the man who works in the shop tells him that he can't because he is too small. Chris doesn't listen to him and he opens the cage. However, there are many bunnies in the cage and they all come out! Soon, they are running all over the shop. In the beginning, the man who works at the shop is very angry. But many people come to help and some of them buy bunnies. In the end, the man is not angry any more.

In the second story, he is at school. He puts glue on his teacher's chair. When his teacher sits down, she can't get up. All the kids laugh, but the teacher doesn't. She's very angry. I won't tell you anything else about the book. I think you should read it, too.

Have you read anything interesting, too? Let me know about it.

Bye for now,

Tom
