Read the text	My friend's week days

My friend's name is Bat. He is very busy on week days. He has football practice twice a week - every Monday and Thursday afternoons. He is good at playing football. Each practice takes two hours and then he has to go home and do his homework. Every Friday he has a math test. So, he has to study hard for the exam after his football practice on Thursday. He is quite good at math but he still needs to study hard. On Saturday morning, he goes fishing with his father. He likes fishing. He sometimes catches big fish and his mother cooks delicious meals with the fish. On Saturday evenings, he likes to watch football games on TV. He is a red fan of football. His father also likes to watch the games. His mother sometimes watches with them. But she doesn't like football much. On Sunday mornings he enjoys going for a walk around the park with his dog. They like running quickly together. His sister goes swimming on Sunday afternoons. She swims very well.
