

THE STORY OF HORACE HUMP.

1. How do fairy stories begin and end? Write begin or end next to each option.

- a) Once upon a time...
- b) In the beginning there was...
- c) ...and they lived until the end.
- d) ...and they lived happily ever after.

2. Listen to the first part of the story and write:

- a) the names of the people under the pictures.
- b) who they are - brother, sister, wife, husband, villagers, cleaner, cook, workers, teacher, etc.

Big Bob; Mad Monica; Horace Hump; the mushroom people; Hannah Hump

_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

3. Listen again and write adjectives under each person.

4. Choose the correct answers. More than one may be correct:

Horace was a) rich b) poor c) happy d) angry.

He hated a) mushrooms b) Hannah c) sunlight d) happy people.

Hannah loved a) flowers b) the forest c) Horace d) sunlight.

Big Bob a) loved mushrooms b) felt sorry for Hannah c) lived in Hump House d) lived in the forest.

Mad Monica a) shouted at Hannah b) cleaned the house c) never spoke d) loved Bog Bob.

The best mushrooms grew a) in small dark places b) in the sunlight c) under the ground.

Horace a) paid the villagers a little b) didn't pay the villagers c) paid the villagers a lot.

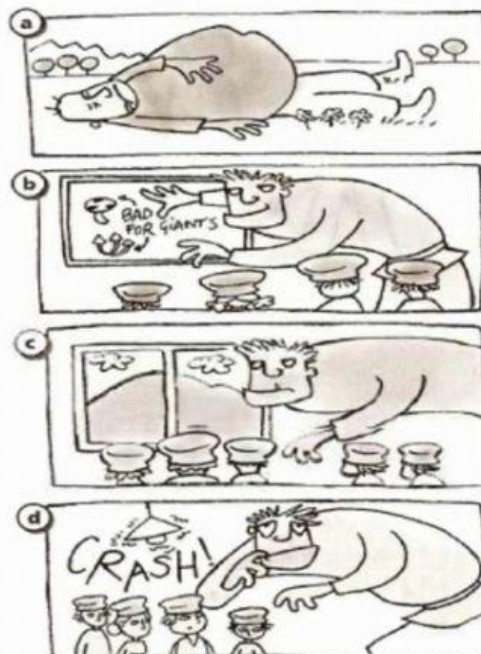

Horace didn't get mushrooms himself because he was a) too dirty b) too angry c) too poor d) too big.

5. Why did these people hate Horace?

- 1 Hannah hated Horace because
- 2 Big Bob
- 3 Mad Monica
- 4 The mushroom people

6. Listen to the second part of the story and put the pictures in the correct order:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

7. WRITING. Write the ending or the story. Answer these questions to help you organize your ideas:

- 1 How do you think Horace died?
- 2 What did Hannah / Big Bob / Mad Monica / the mushroom people / do next?
- 3 Why?
- 4 What happened at the end? Did 'they all live happily ever after'?